Parents,

Thank you to everyone who invited their parents to come join us for "Granola Bars with Grandparents". We had a great turn out and so enjoyed having a special time with them. I think I was able to get a picture of all the grandparents with their grandchildren so I will get those printed out this week and send them home in cubbies.

Our Alabama vs. Auburn competition for Muscular Dystrophy Association ends on Wednesday! Footballs are only $1 and they help out a really great cause! Thank you! ~Mrs. Christina

1's

This week we are learning about our bodies. We will sing songs like "Head, Shoulders, Knees, and Toes" and "The Hokey Pokey". We are going to learn the 5 senses. Our cooking project is Homemade Strawberry Jam.

~Ms. Mary, Ms. Teresa,
Ms. Britney & Mrs. Courtney

2's

This week we will be talking all about our body. We will also be talking about our 5 senses and learning the names of our body parts. We will even play a fun game to help in learning the parts. We will sing "Head, Shoulders, Knees, and Toes" too! For our cooking project, we will be making Strawberry Jam to eat with a piece of bread. Yum, yum!

~Ms. Senchal and Ms. Casey

3's

We have to take care of our bodies! We are going to trace our bodies and draw our facial features, count our limbs and fingers and toes. We will be able to identify our five senses and how they work together to help us learn about our surroundings.

Please allow your child to bring:

Tuesday: something heart shaped

Wednesday: something to represent 5

Thurs. & Fri.: something that begins with "E"

~Ms. Sonja & Ms. Joice

Pre-Kindergarten

This week we will be discussing our bodies and different senses. Who takes care of us when our body is sick? Doctors! So we will be discussing going to the doctor. Also, we will be working on writing letter E and the number 5. Here are our themes:

Tuesday: bring something you hear

Wednesday: bring something you can taste

Thursday: bring something you can see

Friday: bring something you can smell

~Ms. Alicia & Mrs. Deborah
