

Sunflower Station Preschool

December 3-7, 2018

Peek At Our Week

Theme: "Winter"

Letter: R

Number: 8

Shape: circle

Color: white

MEMO

Mark your Calendars!

- *Dec. 14- KP3!
- *Dec. 21- Christmas Party & Program @ 3:30
- *Dec. 24-26- Closed for Christmas
- *Dec. 31- Jan. 1- Closed for New Years

Parents,

Please take note of the important dates listed above and be sure to mark your calendar! Also, please take a look at the Lost and Found in the lobby as there are quite a few items piling up. We want to make sure we get those items to the kiddo they belong to! Pretty soon, we will donate those items if they aren't claimed! Thank you!

~Ms. Casey

1's

This week's theme is Winter! We will be doing lots of fun crafts such as popsicle stick snowflakes and cotton ball snowmen! We will also be going over the letter "R" and number 8 during our daily circle time and on Friday, we will be making yummy Snowman Biscuits for our cooking project! What a fun week for the kiddos!

~Ms. Meghan, Ms. Jasmine,
Ms. Tamika, & Ms. Deja

2's

It's cold outside! The first day of winter is swiftly approaching, but the cold temperatures have already arrived. This week, we will learn about Winter. The class will talk about snow, winter clothes, animals in winter, and hibernation. We will also make, match, and count snowflakes. ON Friday, we will make Snowman Biscuits for our cooking project.

~Mrs. Emily and Ms. Maya
Wed.- bring a book about winter
Thurs.- wear white
Fri.- Show & Tell a winter animal

3's

This week we will be learning about Winter. We will talk about animals that hibernate and how they get ready for a long winter. We will estimate, then count how many "snowballs" it will take to build a snowman. For our cooking project on Thursday, we will make Snowman Biscuits!

~Mrs. Ashleigh
Tuesday- Show and Tell
Wednesday- wear white
Thursday- bring a book
Friday- Yoga/Dance

Pre-Kindergarten

Winter is coming! This week is all about the cold season. We will create snowflakes that are just as unique as each of us. We will also be decorating our room for the holidays while we celebrate the most wonderful time of the year! We will work on our counting using candy canes and even get to play with some fake snow! Pre-K is officially transitioning into a Winter Wonderland! Sight words: went, now, please ~Ms. Allie
Wednesday- bring a book theme related
Thursday- wear white
Friday- theme related Show & Tell